RE: Speaking Invitation
Delaware State Chamber of Commerce Dinner
Wilmington, Delaware
18 January 1988

Pat Murray, former FBI executive and Vice President and General Manager of the Personal Banking Division of the Maryland Bank, has invited you to be the guest speaker at the annual Delaware State Chamber of Commerce dinner on 18 January at the Radisson Hotel in Wilmington. You could expect an audience of approximately 900 to 1,000 business, political, and religious leaders of "The First State." Previous speakers have included CEO of Gannett Newspapers John Curley, CEO of Getty Oil Sidney Peterson, CEO of DuPont Irving Shapiro, former CEO of Hercules Corporation Al Giacco, former Governor of Delaware Pete DuPont, Governor of Delaware Michael Castle and former Chairman of the Board at DuPont Edward Jefferson.

STAT Pat has included in his letter a note from Congressman Thomas Carper STAT (D-DL) encouraging you to be the keynote speaker at the annual dinner.

STAT Since this would be a dinner meeting in Wilmington on 18 January and you
STAT plan to leave for  the next day, I believe that you should decline this STAT invitation. At some future date I think this would be an appropriate group for you to address. If you agree, attached is a letter for your signature.

Dear Pat:

Many thanks for your invitation to address the Delaware State Chamber of Commerce annual dinner on January 19th in Wilmington. As the new Director of Central Intelligence, my schedule is heavily committed and I have a conflict with that date. However, I would be interested in speaking to your group sometime in the future. I am always glad to hear from a former FBI colleague.

Best wishes for a successful meeting.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William H. Webster

Dear Judge Webster,

I was talking with my friend and constituent (and former FBI employee of yours) Pat Murray.
He tells me that he has written to invite you to be the keynote speaker at the annual Delaware
State Chamber of Commerce Dinner
in Wilmington next January. It would be a great honor if you could come, and I hope you can.

Best regards,
Tom

Dear Judge Webster:

It is with a great amount of pride, both as a former Bureau Executive and as a member of the Legislative Policy Committee of the Delaware State Chamber of Commerce, that I invite you to be our guest speaker at our annual Delaware State Chamber of Commerce dinner on January 18, 1988 at the Radisson Hotel in Wilmington.

The annual dinner will have an attendance of from 900 to 1,000 people with most of them being the business, political and religious leaders of "The First State". Needless to say, this is "the" event of the year in Delaware.

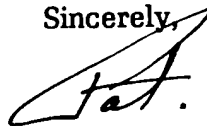

Former speakers have included John Curley, the CEO of Gannett Newspapers; Sidney Peterson, the CEO of Getty Oil; Irving Shapiro, then CEO of the DuPont Co. (Chairman of the Presidential search committee for FBI Director); Al Giacco, then CEO of Hercules Corp.; Governor Pete DuPont, then Governor of Delaware; Governor Michael Castle of Delaware and Edward Jefferson, the former Chairman of the Board at DuPont.

With almost 45% of the "Fortune 500" companies headquartered in Delaware and with the state fast becoming a major world banking center, it would be the "Cap Stone of the 80's" for you to be our guest and enjoy our hospitality for a day or two.

I look forward to hearing from you and also to seeing my former Director in the near future.

With your great enthusiasm and your ever present integrity, I know that you are enjoying every minute at the Agency. Keep up the outstanding work!

Sincerely,

Pat Murray
